INTERNATIONAL WORKSHOP ON NEW MODELS
IN COOPERATIVE GAME THEORY
JANUARY 27-28, 2006, SEVILLE (SPAIN)
FUNDACIÓN EL MONTE
Room Juan de Mairena
Laraña Street (access by Arguijo Street)

OBJECTIVE

The purpose of the workshop is to analyze several solution concepts, values, axiomatizations, and different classes of cooperative games with transferable utility, and new models with partial cooperation.

SCIENTIFIC PROGRAMME

January 27 th

9:30 “The first steps with Alexia, the average lexicographic value” by Stef Tijs (Tilburg University, The Netherlands).
10:30 “Interval values for strategic games in which players cooperate” by Ignacio García Jurado (University of Santiago de Compostela).
11:30 Coffee Break.
12:00 “Equivalence of consistency and bilateral consistency through converse consistency” by Theo Driessen (University of Twente, The Netherlands).
14:00 Lunch.
16:30 “Interior operator games on antimatroids” by Andrés Jiménez Losada (University of Seville).
17:30 Coffee Break.
18:00 “Egalitarianism in cooperative game theory” by Rodica Branzei (Alexandru Ioan Cuza University, Romania).

January 28 th

9:30 “On the lattice structure of TU-cooperative games” by Carles Rafels (University of Barcelona).
10:30 “On the Shapley value of a minimum cost spanning tree problem” by Gustavo Bergantiños (University of Vigo).
11:30 Coffee Break.
12:00 “Two extensions of Young's axiomatization for the Shapley value” by Anna Khmelnitskaya (Mathematics Russian Academy of Sciences).
14:00 Lunch.
SUPPORT COMMITTEE
D. Miguel Florencio Lora, Rector de la Universidad de Sevilla
D. Ángel M. López y López, Presidente de la Fundación El Monte

LOCAL ORGANIZING COMMITTEE
D. Jesús Mario Bilbao Arrese, Universidad de Sevilla
D. Francisco Ramón Fernández García, Universidad de Sevilla
D. Jorge J. López Vázquez, Universidad de Sevilla
D. Fernando Vega Holm, Jefe del Gabinete del Presidente de la Fundación El Monte

FINANCIAL SUPPORT
Financial support from the University of Seville, the Ministry of Science and Technology and the Foundation El Monte to cover travel and accommodation expenses for the speakers is gratefully acknowledged.